- Order from the library or online Mihalyi Csikszentmihalyi's Creativity.
  - Order from the library or online OR pick up a copy from school: Malcolm Gladwell's The Outliers
  - Read and annotate the texts.
    - Post a turnitin response in DISCUSSION TAB to Mihalyi Csikszentmihalyi's Creativity (1996) by July 6th
      - Respond to the text. What ideas have been posed that you find intriguing? What stories or information persuades you towards the argument? What do you think the argument is and why do you think that?
    - Post a turnitin response in DISCUSSION TAB to Malcolm Gladwell's The Outliers (2008) by Aug 6th.
      - Respond to Gladwell's text. What ideas has he posed that you find intriguing? What stories or information does he present that persuade you towards his argument? What do you think his argument is and why do you think that?
      - Compare the previous text's strategies of argumentation with Gladwell's. Which author entices you more towards his argument? How?
      - How do these authors overlap? Are they making the same argument differently? a different argument similarly? Or are the arguments wholly different?
