

Exercise Your Creativity Assignment

Due: _____

Directions: Using the reading, discussions, and your own talents, explore the concept of creativity (and possibly conformity) via your own creative expression. The end product could be an original film, collage, painting, story, poem, 3-d art, song, dance, skit--your imagination sets the limit.

Include with your creative expression, a written expression in which you answer the following questions:

- 1) How does the end product reflect my personality, voice, creativity?
- 2) How have the class readings, videos, and our discussions inspired or contributed to the end product?
- 3) What of the last two-three weeks of instruction has made impression? What do you remember? By what were you struck? What is worthy of your memory?

Criterion for Assessment:

1) End product: up to 25 points

- a) Does it reflect creativity or does it feel derivative?
- b) Does it reflect thoughtfulness, time, or effort?

2) Response: up to 15 points

- a) Are all three questions answered in a thorough manner and with examples or evidence provided for opinions?
- b) Is the response clear, coherent, concise, and clean of errors?
