Macbeth; Breaking Bad Edition

ala Breaking Bad

Interpretive Tag

*Even in present-day New Mexico, power is able to corrupt the best of men (Walter White) and the furthers the deterioration of character for others (Jesse Pinkman). In this adaption of William Shakespeare's Macbeth, the search for power leads to the questioning of morals.

-Enter Macbeth (I.VII. 1-5) MACBETH ← CAPS If it were done when 'tis done, then 'twere well It were done quickly. If the assassination Could trammel up the consequence, and catch With his surcease success; (I.VII.13-16) ← (Act, Scene, Lines) First, as I am his kinsman and his subject, Strong both against the deed; then, as his host, Who should against his murderer shut the door, Not bear the knife myself.	-Jesse, talking to himself... JESSE MAN, if I could just kill him and get it over with, all our problems would be "gonezo"... But I'm just NOT fEEllin' it yo. He's finally cuttin' me some slack and letting me sling-his ice. He's crashin at MY pad too, that makes it soOOmuch worse.... ↑ Scoring
-Enter Lady Macbeth (I.VII. 30) LADY MACBETH He has almost supped. Why have you left the chamber?	-Walter walks in to find Jesse... WALTER He's almost done with the Funyuns, what is it with you? Get BACK in your room..Pinkman
(I.VII.34) MACBETH We will proceed no further in this business. (I.VII.25-28)	JESSE Mr. White, I can't do it. I just sell the stuff, you and all this crazy "get rich" stuff... whats in it for me yo?
